euroAtlantic Airways expands long-haul fleet with a new Airbus A330-300 aircraft

Lisbon, Portugal, 2 September 2026

euroAtlantic Airways (EAA), a Njord Partners portfolio company and a leading Portuguese aircraft wet-leasing and charter business, is pleased to announce the induction of a new Airbus A330-300 aircraft into its fleet, further strengthening its long-haul widebody capabilities and reinforcing the Company's growth trajectory in the ACMI and charter markets.

The Airbus A330-300 is leased from Jackson Square Aviation (JSA). The 15-year-old aircraft is configured in a three-class layout comprising Business, Premium Economy and Economy, accommodating 290 passengers. It features full lie-flat seating in Business Class and personal in-seat entertainment monitors throughout the cabin.

The aircraft, to be registered as CS-TGI following completion of the standard regulatory approval process, completed its delivery flight from Kuala Lumpur to Beja, Portugal, on 17 August 2026. Known for its efficiency and comfort, the aircraft will support EAA's ongoing operations and represents an important step in the Company's long-term growth strategy and expansion of its long-haul capabilities.

EAA expects further fleet additions in the coming months in line with its strategic plan. The airline currently operates for LOT Polish Airlines on the daily New York-Warsaw route and for Azul on services linking Lisbon with Campinas, Porto with Recife, and Madrid. EAA also provides services for government entities while continuing its regular weekly routes to Sao Tome and Bissau.

Pauls Calitis, CEO of euroAtlantic Airways, commented:

“We are delighted to welcome a new Airbus A330-300 into the EAA fleet. This induction reflects the continued growth of our Airbus operation and our commitment to offering airlines and clients around the world a versatile, reliable ACMI and charter solution. We are grateful to Jackson Square Aviation for their partnership in bringing this aircraft into our fleet and look forward to seeing it enter full service."

Kevin McDonald, CEO of Jackson Square Aviation, added:

"We are pleased to support euroAtlantic Airways' continued fleet growth with the placement of this A330. The aircraft's proven economics, operational flexibility, and reliability make it an excellent fit for the operator's global ACMI and charter network. We look forward to further strengthening our partnership in the years ahead."
